Source Document

This is the source document used for watermarking and text extraction.
Page one introduces the project goals and scope.

Source Document

Page two lists the deliverables and the project timeline.